

IERE Email Magazine

Vol. 53

July 25, 2018
IERE Central Office

New website “Collaboration Map” is available.

IERE Central Office opened the website of members information, which includes a ‘Collaboration Map’ from April 2018. In this website, you can search easily which technologies IERE members are interested in. This website would be useful to find a collaboration partner in order to research & develop new technologies.

Only IERE members can access the new website, ‘Collaboration Map’.
